Nature Tours

Safari Caño Negro River

One of the most important wetlands and natural refuges in Costa Rica. This vast territory of wetlands, lagoons, rivers and creeks constitutes an important habitat for birds, reptiles, fish and mammals. A secret spot with nature lush, virgin and impressive. Safari Caño Negro is one of the most amazing trips for incredible bird watching (on dry season) and wildlife in Costa Rica.

Night Walk

Experience this wild frog sanctuary at night, when colorful tree frogs and other rainforest wildlife are most active and most easily observed. At least 20 frog species have made their home in the ponds.

Sloth Tour

If you are looking for a place where you can watch one of the top 5 wild animals in our country and the world, come and visit this park, take a tour on the trail to watch sloths in their natural habitat, the best park to find this amazing and curious animal!

Río Celeste

This unique hike combines nature's beauty with a great opportunity to observe the wonderful flora and fauna. During our hike through the Tenorio Volcano National Park we pass by the Celeste River Lagoon and walk along two crystal clear streams which come together to form the Río Celeste. Here the clear water mysteriously changes to a beautiful bright, light-blue color (hence the name "Light-Blue-River").

Adventure Tours

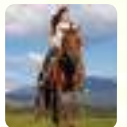

Ziplining Tour

One of the main attractions in Fortuna is to take a ZIP LINE Tour. Fly high over the canopy of the rain forest and feel what adrenaline means for nature lovers. Get your heart pounding by taking a zipline ride through the Costa Rican forest canopy; whizz along cables slung between canyons, admire incredible views, fly over and in between trees to feel an adrenaline rush like no other.

Horse Back Riding

Come Horseback riding with us across the base of the Arenal Volcano! This horse-riding experience will bring you as close as you can get to the volcano and unique Costa Rica wildlife, crossing creeks and riding through lush primary rainforest.

Rafting

Arenal Rafting Class III & IV White Water, rafting trip is on the amazing Balsa River. Navigate 10 kilometers of white-water rapids, stop along the way to rest a bit, do a little swimming, and enjoy some fresh Costa Rica fruits. After white water rafting, you will get a clean towel, cold complementary beer or water, and we'll take you to a local restaurant to have a Costa Rica style lunch!

ATV Tour

This fantastic ATV guided experience begins driving inside hidden trails submerged in the rainforest. Along the way, you will find unique views of the Arenal Volcano, explore the forest and swim on the Arenal River. The tour guides will give you a briefing and explanation about the history of the town, nature, and culture of the northern region of Costa Rica.

Canyoning

Canyoning tour will take you deep inside the rainforest, unique experience with nature, rappelling through waterfalls as you traverse a canyon creek. Along the way you will come across water springs, jump into naturally formed water pools, and zip line past the forest trees. Experience nature like never before!

Lake Arenal Kayaking

The tour offers unbeatable views of the Arenal Volcano. Starting from El Fósforo-El Castillo and lasts 2.5 hours where it will travel from 3 km to 5 km. Throughout the tour you will be able to explore more closely the tropical rain forest that surrounds Lake Arenal and delight yourself with the flora and fauna of the area.

Cultural Tour

Coffee & Chocolate Tour

A family business that through its tours teach visitors the whole process behind two very important products worldwide, Coffee and Chocolate. Coffee and Chocolate Tour, will take you to know the entire process, from the seed to the exquisite cup of coffee and the delicious chocolate bar.

Cooking class

The place is located in a rural community where the tradition and culture of a town is reflected in this gastronomy. You will learn about the preparation of traditional Costa Rican dishes with products from the garden and the oldest way in the heat of the wood-fired kitchen. And of course, you will enjoy the result of an authentic and delicious Costa Rican dish!
